On Matters of Principal

January 11, 2007

Another Four Day Weekend!!!

The 3rd Quarter is off to a quick start – progress reports will be published on February 7th and the Quarter ends on March 9th. The St Anne expectations are high for academic performance based on improved work performance and study.

Registration is off to a good start!

The reputation and value of St. Anne continues to grow with over 30 new faces applying and expecting to transfer to St Anne for the 2007-2008 school year. At this early date, over 40 % of the 'eligible to return' St. Anne students have already registered. Please remember to send your money with your registration documentation.

Bishop Baker Letter Supporting Catholic Education!

In your 'white envelope' is another white envelope with Bishop Baker's letter supporting Catholic Education. In addition, there is key information regarding South Carolina schools and your money. At St Anne 'spirituality of the soul' and academic excellence are the cornerstones of the activities in the school everyday. This is what St. Anne teaches. Together with Charlotte Catholic High School, St Anne markets a kindergarten to 12th grade education for all children. Please review the St Anne value and consider the facts.
