

On Matters of Principal

March 13, 2008

Dear Parents,

Congratulations to Mrs. Louise Garrison!!

Mrs. Garrison is one of three finalists for the 2007-2008 SCISA Elementary School "Teacher of the Year." The award will be presented in Orangeburg, SC in April. St Anne is wishing a well deserving teacher "good luck."

Reminder – Cell Phones!!!

Recently, there have been a number of disruptive occurrences regarding students with cell phones in school. The St Anne policy regarding cell phones from the Parent/Student Handbook (available on the website) is as follows:

460. INAPPROPRIATE ITEMS AT SCHOOL

The following items are not appropriate for students to have on school property because they are distractions to the learning environment. If these items are noticed, teachers will take them away from the students. Parents can meet with the teacher to re-claim such items. This is not an all-inclusive list. The school's administrative team will determine any items in dispute.

- Laser pointers
- Electronic games
- Head sets, radios, CD players
- Key chains or any other decorative items on book bags
- Cell phones, pagers, beepers, iPods, or any other telecommunication device

2008-2009 Tuition Assistance Applications- due 3/28

2008 Kim Martinson Memorial Scholarship Applications - due 4/3

Applications are available in the office for all raising Middle School students for the 2008-2009 school year. St. Anne School must receive the applications no later than April 3.
